

PUTTING THE WUNDER BACK INTO THE WUNDERKAMMER

Museums and arts organisations working in partnership to creatively re-imagine collections with young people

WHAT

A free, practical skills sharing event

WHO

For teachers and arts organisations involved in cultural learning

WHEN

7th July 4-6pm

WHERE

Islington Museum,
245 St John Street,
London
EC1V 4NB

RSVP

rebecca.campbell-gay@islington.gov.uk

DURING THE EVENT YOU WILL

- Attend two 30 minute artist-led practical workshops from the following
  - ▶ Exploring the postal past through mail art
  - ▶ Re-imagining a local history collection through music
  - ▶ Bringing an art collection to life for young people with Moderate Learning Difficulties
- Receive an ideas bank for each workshop
- Have an opportunity to question the project partners about our experience of partnership working
- Receive a copy of our Skills Sharing document, including all our Case Studies.

PUTTING THE WUNDER BACK INTO THE WUNDERKAMMER

Museums and arts organisations working in partnership to creatively re-imagine collections with young people

WHAT

A free, practical skills sharing event

WHO

For museum staff involved in cultural learning

WHEN

14th July 6-8pm

WHERE

Estorick Collection of Modern Italian Art,
39A Canonbury Square,
London
N1 2AN

RSVP

rebecca.campbell-gay@islington.gov.uk

DURING THE EVENT YOU WILL

- Attend two 30 minute artist led practical workshops from the following:
  - ▶ Exploring the postal past through mail art
  - ▶ Re-imagining a local history collection through music
  - ▶ Bringing an art collection to life for young people with Moderate Learning Difficulties
- Have an opportunity to question the project partners
- Receive a hardcopy of our Skills Sharing document. This contains handy advice on developing and delivering partnership projects, as well as our full project case studies.
- Receive an ideas bank for each workshop