

BBC Pride and Prejudice 1995:

Reflections Around a Much-Loved Production

5 September 2015

Programme

Registration & tea, coffee and biscuits from 9:30

- 10:30 Devoney Looser (Arizona State University):
Playing Mr. Darcy, from Archery to Wet Shirts
- Juliette Wells (Goucher College, Baltimore):
Pride and Prejudice Mania in the 1940s
- 12:00 Lunch
- 13:30 Linda V Troost (Washington & Jefferson College, Pennsylvania) and Sayre Greenfield (the University of Pittsburgh at Greensburg):
Pride & Prejudice 1995: The Game Changer
- Nora Nachumi (Yeshiva University, New York):
In Search of Colin Firth's Bum (and the women who love it)
- 15:00 Tea & Coffee break
- 15:30 Simon Langton (Director of the 1995 production):
Shooting Jane
- 16:15 Comfort break
- 16:30 Simon Langton will host a panel of actors who starred in the 1995
production, including Mr Bennet (Benjamin Whitrow), Mr Bingley
(Crispin Bonham-Carter), Mr Collins (David Bamber) and Mrs
Gardiner (Joanna David).
- 18:00 Drinks and canapés

Carriages at 19:00

The Lower Reading Room will be open during coffee and lunch breaks with a display relating to Pride & Prejudice and other treasured works by Jane Austen.