Urban Forms and Future cities

Deadline for abstracts: 1 October 2015

The opening volume of Urban Planning will be dedicated to urban forms and future cities. As inauguration of this new journal, we like to offer a theoretical, descriptive volume, however empirical researches are also welcomed.

The kind of expected articles would embrace the following topics: urban utopia, urban quality of life, urban morphologies, green cities, urban forms-urban structures and climate change, history of urban forms, rural versus cities and megacities lifestyle, urban science, forces shaping cities.

Abstracts with approximately 200-250 words with a tentative title shall be sent by email to Urban Planning's Editorial Office:
