

Celts: art and identity

The British Museum ESOL team is pleased to announce that we are now taking bookings for the forthcoming exhibition, Celts: art and identity.

This is the first major exhibition to examine the full history of Celtic art and identity, and is organised in partnership with National Museums Scotland. The story unfolds over 2,500 years, from the first recorded mention of 'Celts' to an exploration of contemporary Celtic influences. Discover how this identity has been revived and reinvented over the centuries, across Britain, Europe and beyond.

The fascinating art and history explored in the exhibition have deep resonances for those in Britain, Ireland and the global Celtic diaspora today, influencing everything from music and literature to sport and spirituality.

ESOL workshops

Our workshops will transport you back in time to explore the rich and varied heritage of the Celts and to find out what Celtic identity meant over 2000 years ago and what it means to people today.

Workshops are available for up to 20 students and will be suitable for all levels. Workshops are free for ESOL groups.

Workshops start at 10.00; 10.15 and 10.30 and include entry into the exhibition, unfortunately we are unable to offer free workshops outside of these times but students who want visit do receive a concessionary rate.

Please return the attached form to me (not the General Office) with a choice of dates (ie 1st, 2nd and 3rd), this will help us with the swift processing of your booking.
