Student and Emerging Scholars' Day

Friday 4th September 2015, Mainz, Germany
(Before the GSFL Roundtable)

Purpose of Day

This day is aimed at students and new academics, but anyone is welcome. We ran this for the first time last year, and received some very positive feedback. We have a range of talks planned by some very prominent forensic linguists. We have incorporated feedback from last year, as well as from those who kindly completed the questionnaire and have planned a day that will be suitable (and hopefully very interesting!) for both previous attendees and new attendees.
