

STUDENT TRANSFORMATION

PEDRIO CRITICALLY INCLUSIVE PEDAGOGIES RESEARCH NETWORK INTERNATIONAL SEMINAR

10 September 2015 | 10.00am – 4.30pm

Exploring culturally responsive pedagogy and shifting inclusive pedagogy - crossing borders with international voices.

This symposium aims to share and explore aspects of social justice matters within Higher Education discourses. The speakers are part of an international network of academics exploring and engaging with questions regarding diversity, inclusion and effective pedagogies in Higher Education.

SOCIAL JUSTICE

WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION

Professor Pauline Kneale (Plymouth University, UK)

DIVIDED AND DIVIDING DISCOURSES: CONFLICTS WITH AND FOR INCLUSION. GETTING DOWN AND DIRTY!

Dr Suanne Gibson (Plymouth University, Devon, UK)

IN PURSUIT OF CULTURALLY RESPONSIVE PEDAGOGY IN AOTEAROA NZ

Ms Delia Baskerville (Victoria University, New Zealand)

DEVELOPING CULTURALLY RESPONSIVE URBAN INSTRUCTORS: THE URBAN LEARNING PROGRAM

Dr Margaret D Clark (California State University, Los Angeles, USA)

MEETING THE NEEDS OF DIVERSE STUDENTS IN HIGHER EDUCATION: IT DEPENDS ON THE MASTER YOU SERVE

Dr Kathleen Norris EdD and Ann B Berry PhD (Plymouth State University, New Hampshire, USA)

DISCUSSION FORUM

Back by demand - Guest Appearance: Professor Penny Jane Burke (University of Roehampton) Plenary Discussion Advisor/Facilitator

Stonehouse Lecture Theatre,
Portland Square,
Plymouth University

(Academics, students and staff are welcome)

For further information visit the following webpage:

<https://goo.gl/HExdL2> / To register your interest please contact

Debbie White: 01752 584 506, email: deborah.white@plymouth.ac.uk,

or contact us on Twitter @SuanneGibson or @PU_PedRIO

