Requests for Expressions of Interest – Call for Proposals – Requests for Abstracts Submission Proposals

WHO CAN SUBMIT? Midwives, student midwives, those interested or involved in the work of midwives. Presenters must have a computer with headphones.

WHAT KIND OF PRESENTATIONS? Presentations may be about midwifery research, international midwifery, midwifery education initiatives, midwifery practice issues, midwifery philosophy, or Safe Motherhood. Presentations may be organized as informal discussions, panel discussions, meetings or story-telling. Poster presentations are welcome and will be posted on our website. More information is available from the conference website <http://www.vidm.org>

A presentation or session should:

- Have a clear aim or purpose
- Focus on midwifery or maternity care
- Be of interest to an international audience

PRESENTATION FORMAT: VIDM conferencing software supports voice and PowerPoint presentations or slides in pdf files. We do not stream video. Participants can listen on computer, tablet or smart phones.

LANGUAGES: While the expression of interest/proposal/abstract must be in English, presentations in other languages are welcome. Translating some key phrases into English on the slides is recommended.

SPEAKER SUPPORT: Presenters need not be experienced in using web-conferencing software. Each presenter will be paired with a facilitator who will give support at every stage. Presenters also need to
