We are searching for the following new member to our team:

Post:	Quality and Audit Development Advisor
Contract:	Fixed Term, until September 2017 (secondment available) Part Time, 21 hours per week
Location:	Marylebone, London
Salary:	£41,225 p.a. pro rata (inc. London weighting £4,752 pro rata) + incremental progression

The Royal College of Midwives is seeking a skilled advisor to lead the development, updating and communication of RCM clinical guidelines and evidence based practice recommendations. This is an opportunity for an expert in this field to lead and advise on audit of midwifery care undertaken by the RCM or collaboratively. You will provide support to the review, development and updating of RCM guidelines beginning with infant skincare and midwifery care in labour. This will include writing, researching, assisting the development group process and engaging with members and other stakeholders on the ongoing activities. You will also support colleagues across the organisation on activities relating to guidelines and audit e.g. contributing to papers, consultations, presentations, publications and products.

The successful candidate will:

- be a registered and practicing midwife (this is a requirement for the role)
- have experience of contributing to the development of guidelines and audit
- hold Masters degree level or above in a relevant field
- have proven experience of working with systems for clinical governance, audit and risk management and have a commitment to evidence based practice
- be an innovative thinker, with the ability to take responsibility for decisions
- have exemplary communication skills, with the ability to present information effectively and represent the RCM.

In return, the RCM's reward package includes:

- 29 days annual leave pro rata + 8 bank holidays pro rata + 3 days at Christmas;
- an attractive pension scheme;
- tailored development opportunities;
- a season ticket loan, cycle to work scheme and childcare vouchers;
- an Employee Assistance Program including discounts on everyday purchases.

An application pack is available to download on the RCM website or please email HR@rcm.org.uk to request more information.

The RCM is an equal opportunities employer and welcomes applications from all sections of the community. All disabled applicants meeting the criteria will be invited to interview.

Closing Date: Sunday 31 January 2016

Interview & Assessment Date: Week beginning 15 February 2016
