

FaithXchange ANNUAL CONFERENCE 2016

Alternative Visions in the Public Sphere

05 February 2016 | 8:45am – 5pm | RHB 137, Goldsmiths University of London

Over the last forty years, understandings of the public sphere have been dominated by secular discourses. Literature over the last twenty years has identified a renewed visibility of religion. Yet religion is a culturally specific category, identified most closely with Protestant Christianity, and so talk of its return raises questions of hegemony. Alongside secular and Christian discourses, this symposium seeks to give voice to alternative visions, representative of the vast array of religion and belief in the contemporary world.

INVITED SPEAKERS

Dr. Jasjit Singh

School of Philosophy, Religion and the History of Science, University of Leeds

Dr. Katie Aston

Department of Anthropology
Goldsmiths University of London

Dr. Daniel Nilsson DeHanas

Department of Theology & Religious Studies, King's College London

For further information or to RSVP, please contact the organizing committee at: faithxchange@gold.ac.uk

This is a free event and lunch will be provided

The Symposium is funded by the Sir Halley Stewart Trust and supported by the Graduate School at Goldsmiths University of London <http://www.gold.ac.uk/faithsunit/network/>

faithXchange