

DISABLED ACCESS DAY
12th March 2016

Disabled Access Day & Access Conference Kelham Island Museum Saturday 12th March 2016

A FREE and inclusive open day with an exciting range of activities and talks for both children and adults!

Activities:

- 10am Autism Friendly Hour - reduced sensory in put in the museum until 11am
- All day: There will be stalls in the museum from local and national disabled access groups
- 10.30-11am Storytelling for under 5s in the Hawley Gallery (Story of the Mysterious Egg)
- 11.30am Touch Tour of the Museum
- 1.30pm BSL Tour of the Museum
- 2.30-3.15pm Storytelling with puppets for 5-11 years in the Hawley Gallery (Story of Ironie) with BSL interpretation

Talks Programme:

- 10.30-11am Steaming on with Inclusive Access: An overview of 'Sheffield 1916: Steel, Steam and Power' and how inclusive access principals are being worked into the project
- 11.30-12noon from Bog Standard Practice: An introduction to inclusive access design principles in action toilets to text panels
- 12.30-1pm Stories, Songs and Signs: How museums can provide access to disabled children and their families
- 1.30-2pm Dementia Awareness: An introduction to becoming a dementia friendly museum
- 2.30-3pm Visual Impairment Awareness: A practical introduction to the experiences of visually impaired visitors followed by a brief tour by members of the Inclusive Access Forum

SHEFFIELD INDUSTRIAL MUSEUMS TRUST

KELHAM ISLAND
MUSEUM

ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL
ENGLAND

