

Information History: Perspectives and Prospects

Library & Information History Group Annual Conference 2016

Friday 6 May 2016

CILIP, 7 Ridgmount Street, London

WC1E 7AE

Conference conveners – Alistair Black, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and Monica Blake, Blake Information

Keynote Address – Professor Emeritus Martin Campbell-Kelly
Department of Computer Science, University of Warwick
Victorian Data Processing

Invited Address – Dr. Toni Weller
Visiting Research Fellow, De Montfort University
Cambridge Women as Objects of Information, 1870-1920

John Crawford
Scotland as the European Home of Information Ideologies?

Graham Jefcoate
Knowledge Transfer in the High Enlightenment: The Example of Göttingen University Library

Anna Hampson Lundh, Mats Dolatkah and Louise Limberg
Pre-digital Information Literacy: An Historical Perspective on Information Seeking in Educational Contexts

Ilkka Mäkinen
Discipline and Technology of Reading in the 20th Century

Deborah Mogg
H. E. Bliss and the Orderly Cosmos

Christina Vouvaki-Manousaki and Panorea Gaitanou
Museum Libraries History – The Greek Reality: Information Dissemination within the Museum Context

Steve Witt
Radical Readers and Global Surveillance: Books, Libraries, and the Information Networks of the Imperial Russian Secret Police

Full programme details and a booking form are available at:

<http://www.cilip.org.uk/about/special-interest-groups/library-and-information-history-group>