

Leadership and Diversity in Organisations

Call for papers

25th May 2016

University of Kent, Canterbury

10.00-17.00

The Leadership and Diversity Conference welcomes submissions from multi-disciplinary perspectives that address the following topics:

1. Women and Leadership
2. Innovative Leadership
3. Workplace diversity and equality of opportunity
4. Career progression

This conference has been designed to bring together academic researchers, postgraduate researchers and HR professionals for knowledge exchange, research as well as practical advice and collaboration. The aim of the conference is to discuss and highlight current progress and challenges in achieving diversity and addressing potential interventions for success in equality and diversity.

Keynote speeches will be given by (1) Professor Michelle Ryan who is a Professor of Social and Organisational Psychology at University of Exeter and has been involved in a number of research projects including the discovery of the phenomenon of the glass cliff. (2) Professor Robin Martin who is a Professor of Organisational Psychology at Manchester Business School and has extensively researched organisational leadership.

The conference has a limited number of participants so registration will be on a first come first served basis.

Registration will open 7th March and close 15th April. All delegates are invited to submit an abstract for an oral presentation or poster with their registration on the Online Submission Portal. The outcome for acceptance of abstracts will be announced shortly after 15th April.

NOTE: The conference is free to attend for ESRC and postgraduate students. For ESRC students there are 20 postgraduate travel bursaries available to eligible students (first come first served basis), these will be awarded upon registration for the conference from 7th March 2016 at 9.00am.
