

A New Politics for Health - Moving Forward from the Ottawa Charter

Wednesday 23rd November 2016, 9am - 16.30pm

At Birmingham City University - Edgbaston

Draft Programme

Refreshments and registration

Welcome to BCU

Welcome Address: Politics of Health Group: Aims of the conference and beyond

Speakers: Richard Wilkinson and Kate Pickett, The Equality Trust

Workshops (1)

Part 1: Exploring the Ottawa Charter themes, drawing on pre-conference work: What has been implemented, what's missing, what are the key questions?

Part 2: Identifying issues for inclusion in the Birmingham Charter

Lunch

1: Voting on issues for inclusion in the Birmingham Charter

2: Opportunity to post comments on process and content of Birmingham Charter

Workshops (2)

Part 1: What is currently happening around health promotion and what's working at the moment

Part 2: Using the charter to build individual and collective action

Tea

People's voices - what would a successfully implemented Charter mean to ordinary people?

Way Forward: Building the Birmingham Charter and the public health movement

 THE EQUALITY TRUST

BIRMINGHAM CITY
University

Politics of Health Group