

BOOK LAUNCH

2pm, Thursday 28th July 2016, Leicester

You are invited to the launch of 'Joint Action: essays in honour of John Shotter'.

The book brings together a cross-disciplinary group of fifteen respected international scholars to explain the relevance of John Shotter's work to emerging concerns in twenty-first century social science. Shotter's work extends over forty years and continues to challenge conventional thinking across a range of topics. This is the first publication to examine the importance of his influence in contemporary social sciences and it includes authoritative discussions on topics such as social constructionism, democratic practice, organisational change, the affective turn and human relations.

This informal launch event will take place at College Court, a conference centre owned by the University of Leicester which is a short taxi ride away from Leicester train station. The address is: College Court Knighton Rd, Leicester, East Midlands LE2 3UF.
