

Job Offer:

The International Psychoanalytic University (IPU), Department of Experimental Psychology (Prof. Stelzel) in collaboration with the University Potsdam, Division of Social- and Preventive Medicine (Dr. Heinzl, Prof. Rapp) is looking for a Postdoctoral Researcher (50%) or a qualified Ph.D. student (duration: min. 2 years, starting as soon as possible).

Job Description

- Analysis and Publication of a multivariate dataset on the association of cognitive control and decision-making with a focus on connectivity analyses
- Data Acquisition and Analysis of an fMRI project on Multitasking in old age
- Teaching at IPU (1.5 h/week)

Your profil:

- Master's Degree / Diploma in Psychology, Neuroscience or related fields
- Experience in experimental work and analysis of fMRI data (e.g. with SPM)
- Experience or strong interest in graph-theoretical analyses
- Interest in interdisciplinary work

The position offers the opportunity to obtain a Ph.D. or according qualification on the Postdoc level.

Please send us your application including CV and two contacts of references until August 22nd 2016, via e-Mail, to: christine.stelzel@ipu-berlin.de

Further information about our University: <http://www.ipu-berlin.de>

Further information about the multitasking project: <http://www.spp1772.uni-freiburg.de/projects/modality-mappings>