

Handling Museum Objects

Wednesday 28 September

Draft Programme

- | | |
|--------------------|---|
| 10.00–10.30 | Welcome and Registration |
| 10.30–11.00 | Introduction to Object Handling
General guidelines on best practice handling museum objects across the collections, and on related areas such as manual handling and health and safety concerns.
Susana Fajardo, Textile Conservator |
| 11.00–11.30 | Technical Services
An exposition on the complex processes and practicalities of packing, moving and transporting large and/or heavy objects of varying condition. Also a look at how the team is structured and how their diverse activities are planned.
Richard Ashbridge, Technical Services Team Manager |
| 11.30–12.30 | Paper Conservation
Guidance on the safe handling of paper objects and some basic information on paper types and mounting techniques. The safe storage and moving of paper objects.
Susan Catcher, Senior Paper Conservator |
| 12.30–13.00 | Book Conservation
An overview of the construction of different book structures and their components modern and historical. Discuss component considerations and different supports available. Participants will have the opportunity to handle, see and discuss issues raised by the various examples.
Anne Bancroft, Senior Book and Paper Conservator |
| 13.00–13.45 | Lunch (Provided) |

- 13.45–14.15 Paintings and Frames Conservation
Guidance on handling picture frames and also touch upon gilded surfaces in general.
Zoe Allen, Senior Gilded Furniture and Frames Conservator
Guidance on the safe handling of paintings with some explanation of their structure.
Nicola Costaras, Head of Paintings Conservator
- 14.15–14.45 Ceramics and Glass Conservation
Guidance on the safe handling of ceramic and glass objects and moving them over short distances.
Fi Jordan, Senior Ceramics and Glass Conservator
- 14.45–15.15 Metals Conservation
Guidance on handling metal objects, with particular reference to arms and armour.
Donna Stevens, Senior Metals Conservator
- 15.15–15.30 Coffee Break
- 15.30–16.00 Sculpture Conservation
Guidance on handling 3 D sculptural objects in all materials (except metals). It will introduce the characteristics of the different materials and types of sculpture, and also the weak points to watch out while handling.
Victor Borges, Senior Sculpture Conservator
- 16.00–16.30 Furniture Conservation
Addressing the needs of moving furniture related objects, seat furniture, carcass furniture, clocks and musical instruments. The associated problems relating to lifting marquetry, ivory inlays and lacquer surfaces,
Dr Nigel Bamforth, Senior Conservator, Furniture Conservation Studio Manager
- 16.30–17.00 Textiles Conservation
Guidance on handling diverse 2D and 3D textile objects. Participants will be presented with two basic exercises: rolling a printed textile and dressing an item of costume onto a mannequin.
Susana Fajardo, Textile Conservator

Please note this programme is subject to change