

1916 in Ireland and Wales

Symposium Organised by the Wales-Ireland Research Network, with the support of the Wales Remembers centenary programme and the Welsh Government
14 September 2016

Location: Room A14, Hugh Owen Building, Penglais Campus, Aberystwyth University, Aberystwyth, Ceredigion, Wales

Attendance is free but registration beforehand is essential. Contact:
history-enquiries@aber.ac.uk
(please put '1916 in Ireland and Wales' in message title)

Programme

9.15

Welcome: Linda Tomos, National Librarian of Wales

9.30

Session 1: Irish Revolutionary Traditions

“How best the bold thought of liberty might be pushed through the assuming crowd” (The Nation). Writing the History of Revolutionary Irish Associational Culture’
Prof. Martyn Powell (Aberystwyth University)

‘Conflict Confined? The Role of Imprisonment during the Irish Revolution’
Dr William Murphy (Dublin City University)

11.05 Coffee break

11.20

Session 2: ‘University of Revolution’? Fron-goch

‘Myth and Memory: From Bala to Beal na Blath and back again’
Jon Parry (Royal veterinary College, London)

‘Remembering Fron-goch: Evidence from the Bureau of Military History’
Dr Fearghal McGarry (Queen’s University, Belfast)

1.00-2.00 Lunch

2.00

Session 3: Unions

'Unionists and 1916'

Prof. Alvin Jackson (Edinburgh University)

'On From Mametz: Liberal Wales, Britain and 1916'

Prof. Paul O'Leary (Aberystwyth University)

3.45 Tea

4.00

Session 4: Wales and 1916

'Landscapes of War: Robert Graves and the Rhinogs, 1916.'

Dr Mary-Ann Constantine (Centre for Advanced Welsh and Celtic Studies)

'Spies in Wales in 1916'.

Aled Eirug (Cardiff University)

Break: 5.30-45

6.00

Session 5

H.E. Daniel Mulhall, Ambassador of Ireland to Great Britain

“The confluence of dreams”: George Russell's 1916’.

CYMRU'N COFIO
WALES REMEMBERS
1914 - 1918

PRIFYSGOL
ABERYSTWYTH
UNIVERSITY