

Centre for Advancement in Realist Evaluation and Synthesis (CARES)
Presents:

2nd INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON
Realist Evaluation & Synthesis: Advancing Principles, Strengthening Practice

Monday 3 October – Wednesday 5 October 2016
Barbican Conference Centre, Silk Street, London

Pre-conference Sunday 2 October and post-conference Thursday 6 October
University of Liverpool, 33 Finsbury Square, London EC2A

PLENARY SPEAKERS:

RAY PAWSON

Emeritus Professor of Social Research Methodology at the University of Leeds UK. Publications include: Realistic Evaluation (1997, with Nick Tilley), Evidence-Based Policy: A Realist Perspective (2006) and The Science of Evaluation: A Realist Manifesto (2013).

JO RYCROFT MALONE

Professor of Implementation and Health Services Research; Pro-Vice Chancellor for Research and Impact at Bangor University and Director of NIHR's Health Services and Delivery Research Programme.

GILL WESTHORN

Professorial Research Fellow at Charles Darwin University, Australia. Director of Community Matters - Consultancy specialising in realist approaches; and RAMESES II co-investigator.

DAVID BYRNE

Emeritus Professor in the School of Applied Social Science. Fellow of the Wolfson Research Institute for Health and Well-Being and Complexity Theorist. Author of Complexity Theory and the Social Sciences (2014).

Pre-conference workshops · Expert plenary speakers · roundtable discussions · oral presentations · posters · skill building · networking · post-conference

Pre-conference Workshops:

- What is Realism? Exploring Key Philosophical Concepts to Advance Realist Methodology
-
- Realist Approaches to Complex Programmes
-
- Cultivating a Disputatious Community of Realist Researchers
-
- Exploring Coding and Data Analysis for CMO Configuring
-
- Introduction to Realist Evaluation and Synthesis

Conference fees:

Regular: £430
Student: £210
Workshops: £50

Cancellation policy:
100% before 31 August
50% before 15 September
0% after 15 September

Register at:
www.liverpool.ac.uk/cares

Register at: www.liverpool.ac.uk/cares

#CARESCONF2016