

BENGAL HISTORY WEEK

8-16 OCTOBER 2016 www.bricklanecircle.org

From
Bengal
History
Week
2014

Brick Lane Circle's is organising its Seventh Annual Bengal History Week during 8-16 October 2016, which aims to help generate greater levels of interest on the learning of the history of Bengal.

FREE ENTRY!
ALL WELCOME!

SAT 8 OCT - Kobi Nazrul Centre, 30
Hanbury St, London E1 6QR

2-2.30pm - Launch of Bangladesh 2021: A critical history initiative

A challenge to all Bangladeshis - help produce fifty great works of Bangladeshi history in five years.

In 2021 Bangladesh will be half a century old as an independent country. To celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of the birth of Bangladesh Brick Lane Circle invites all interested Bangladeshis to become critical historians and help produce at least fifty great works of history by 2021.

Those who are inspired by the initiative do not have to be involved with Brick Lane Circle. They can undertake their work independently, without any reference to us.

2.30-6pm - Workshops on research methodologies, sources of information and history writings.

'The Historian's Craft' Revisited -
by Dr. Layli Uddin

Studying the Sultanate period in Bengal (1203-1576) - by Muhammad Mojum Khan

SUN 9 OCT, 2.30-4.30PM

Lab 7, Idea Store Whitechapel

'Citizens' or 'Aliens'? Lascar settlement in Britain (1900-1946) - by Naina Manjrekar

MON 10 OCT, 6.30-8.30PM

Lab 2, Idea Store Whitechapel

Mental Maps of Pre-Colonial Bengal - by Dr Richard David Williams

TUE 11 OCT, 6.30-8.30PM

Lab 1, Idea Store Whitechapel

Migration Plan and its Influence on Integration Strategic among Bangladeshi Migrants in Italy: A first glance at the data - by Valeria Giannuzzi

WED 12 OCT, 6.30-8.30PM

Lab 5, Idea Store Whitechapel

'Omitted due to insignificance':
the significance of autobiography in archiving colonial theatre histories: the case of Nati Binodini - By Dr Priyanka Basu

THU 13 OCT, 6.30-8.30PM

Lab 1, Idea Store Whitechapel

The first voyage of the East India Company under Captain James Lancaster (1601-3) and Edmund Scot's 'A Discourse of Java, and of the first English Factory...'
(1602-5) - by Dr M Ahmedullah

SAT 15 OCT, 11AM-1PM

Popular East India Company Dockside walk - by Dr Georgie
Wemyss

Places are free but advance booking only. Meeting place will be provided to those who are booked on the walk.

SAT 15 OCT, 2.30-4.30PM

Lab 7, Idea Store Whitechapel

Historical evolution of the East London Mosque - by Professor Humayun Ansar
OBE

SUN 16 OCT

Rich Mix Centre, 35-47 Bethnal
Green Rd, London E1 6LA

2.30-6.30pm

Bangladeshi marriages in the UK - a half a day conference

Changing culture of British Bengali marriages - by Salam
Jones

Forced Marriage, so called "Honour-based Violence" and community engagement - by Dr
Nazia Khanum OBE

Marriage ceremonies, competitions and costs - by Rooful Ali

Marriage related stressors & mental health - by Dr Sidrah Muntaha

Panel discussion: the above speakers plus Shahida Rahman and Sufiya Ahmed

7.00-8.30pm

Stand-up comedy show - host by Asif Baul

Details TBC

WED 9 NOV, 6.30-8.30PM

Harold Pinter Studio, Queen Mary University, Mile End Rd, London E1 4NS.

Readings from The Spectral Wound. Sexual Violence, Public Memories and the Bangladesh War of 1971 - by Dr Nayanika
Mookherjee

For further details or to book a place please contact: 07914119282 bricklanecircle@yahoo.co.uk or www.bricklanecircle.org

ALL WELCOME!

