

Inside the V&A: The V&A's Museum Skills Course

Price: £1100 (incl VAT)

(Early bird discount £990 if booked before 30 November 2016)

Considering a career in galleries and museums? New to the heritage sector and looking to expand your range of skills and career options? Draw on the expertise of staff from across the V&A in a new course that aims to provide an insight into the skills required for working within a museum.

Course Outline

The course features a combination of taught sessions and behind the scenes access. Drawing upon case studies conducted in the museum, individual sessions will be taught by V&A expert staff and will provide an insight into the workings of the V&A - winner of the Art Fund Museum of the Year 2016.

Session topics will include collections management; research; learning programmes and interpretation; marketing; exhibitions; audience engagement and evaluation; and commercial enterprise. The course will include talks and presentations and will include discussions and practical workshops.
