

Barts and The London Psychiatry: State of the Art Congress Human Development and Psychiatry

Wednesday 1 March 2017

Morris Lecture Theatre, Robin Brook Centre, Barts Hospital, West Smithfield

A Mental Health Research Congress bringing together the best psychiatric research from international experts ranging from xxx through to public health. We will have cutting edge research presentations by international experts and from promising junior researchers who will become future leaders.

Programme

Morning Session Conference Chair:	Professor Kamaldeep Bhui Centre Lead Barts and The London School of Medicine and Dentistry
9.00-9.30am	Registration and Coffee
9.30-9.45am	Welcome address
9.45-10.30am	Where did all the girls with autism go? Professor David Skuse Behavioural and Brain Sciences Unit Institute of Child Health, UCL
10.30-11.00am	Coffee
11.00-11.45am	Inflammation in psychiatry: the novel frontier of personalized treatment Professor Carmine Pariente Professor of Biological Psychiatry Institute of Psychiatry and Consultant Perinatal Psychiatrist South London and Maudsley NHS Trust
11.45-12.30pm	Title to be confirmed Professor Angela Hassiotis Professor of Psychiatry and Professor in intellectual disability Division of Psychiatry, UCL
12.30-1.00pm	Open Forum
1.00-2.00pm	Lunch

Afternoon Session Conference Chair:	Dr Nick Bass Consultant Psychiatrist and Director of Medical Education East London Foundation Trust
2.00-2.15pm	Welcome and Introduction
2.15-3.15pm	Trainee and Medical Student Presentations
3.15-3.45pm	Tea
3.45-4.55pm	Trainee and Medical Student Presentations
4.55-5.10pm	Brief address Queen Mary University of London Award Presentations
5.10—5.15pm	Closing Comments

