

Museum Education and Learners with Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND)

Thursday 2nd March 2017

10am - 4pm

Venue

Greenwich Heritage Centre, part of Royal Greenwich Heritage Trust, is the museum and archive for the Royal Borough of Greenwich. It is located on Royal Arsenal Riverside, Woolwich. Find us at <https://www.greenwichheritage.org/visit/greenwich-heritage-centre>

Objectives

This course will enable you to:

- Be aware of the range of SEND in mainstream schools and how needs are identified and monitored.
- Learn how different learning needs may be supported during a school trip.
- Discuss an issue or problem from your own experiences or organisation.
- Identify resources to help with the planning and delivery of school sessions.

Trainer

John Galloway is a specialist in the use of technology to improve educational inclusion, particularly for children and young people with special educational needs. He works for Tower Hamlets as an Advisory Teacher, and also as a freelance consultant, trainer and writer. John has presented at conferences across the UK and internationally and is a published writer, most recently co-authoring 'Learning with Mobile and Handheld Technologies' – winner of Best Book in the 2015 Technology and Innovation Awards.
