

Human Reproduction Study Group Annual Conference

Tuesday 23rd May 2017

Convenors: Dr Kylie Baldwin, Dr Cathy Herbrand

CALL FOR PAPERS

Over the past 15 years, the conference has attracted national and international speakers from emerging, early career, and experienced researchers based at universities, and those working in the field.

We welcome theoretical, methodological, and empirical papers on any aspect of the Sociology of Human Reproduction including, but not limited to: pregnancy & childbirth; mothering/fathering & kinship; infant feeding; (in)fertility; stillbirth & infant death; abortion; miscarriage; assisted conception, new reproductive technologies & genetics.

Plenary address

We are pleased to announce that the plenary address will be delivered this year by Professor Jacqui Gabb from The Open University. Details of Professor Gabb's talk 'Unsettling lesbian motherhood: Critical reflections over a generation (1990-2015)' will be circulated in due course.

Abstract Submission

Please send abstracts of 250 words by 15 March 2017 to reprostudygroup@gmail.com. Abstracts significantly over the word count will not be accepted.

Abstracts will be anonymised when reviewed by the Co-Convenors of the Group, taking into account the suitability of the topic, the stage of research process (if appropriate), and the significance of the findings or arguments proposed to the Group.

Conference Details

The conference will take place at De Montfort University, Leicester in Trinity House Chapel and Boardroom.

The city of Leicester is located an hour from London and is easily accessible by both rail and road and is well served by East Midlands and Birmingham airport.

All delegates and speakers are invited to submit an A3 poster providing a brief overview of their current research interests. Further details will be made available to delegates and speakers nearer the time.
