

BUMP, BIRTH, AND BEYOND: BONDING WITH YOUR BABY

Oxford Brookes Student Midwives' Conference
Thursday 27 July 2017, 9:00-16:00

Main Lecture Theatre, John Henry Brookes Building, Headington Campus

A full circle conference on the relationship between a mother and her baby.

The day will include expert speakers discussing factors supporting bonding and attachment, facilitating practical techniques of mother-baby bonding and understanding baby behaviour.

SPEAKERS INCLUDE

- Bridget Supple - Antenatal Parent Educator
- Guin Webster - Positive Birth Movement Oxford
- Rachel Fitz-Desorgher - Freelance Midwife, infant feeding consultant, active birth teacher and parenting consultant
- Lisa Clayden - SAPlings (Social Aspects of Pregnancy) Midwife

This conference is open to students, midwives, and members of the public who are interested in maternity or the psychology of the mother-baby dyad.

THE DAY WILL ALSO INCLUDE

- Postgraduate midwifery students' research presentations including the neonatal impact of binge drinking during pregnancy and an evaluation of an antenatal mindfulness intervention
- Presentation of Sheila Kitzinger award for Brookes Midwifery Students
- Charity raffle and cake sale: proceeds to Mummy's Star (www.mummysstar.org)
- Posters by OBU students

FREE for Brookes students

Other students: £10
Others: £20

Coffee and tea included

TO BOOK YOUR PLACE GO TO

shop.brookes.ac.uk

CONTACT DETAILS

Kirsten Baker
kirsten.baker@brookes.ac.uk