

Hadrian's Wall Education Forum presents:
Innovation & Invention in Heritage Learning

Friday 15th September 2017

9:30am – 4pm

Clore Learning Suite

Great North Museum: Hancock

9:30am	Registration and Refreshments
10am – 10:15am	Introductions and Housekeeping
10:15am – 11am	Key note address Professor David Leat: Prof of Curriculum Innovation and Executive Director of Research Centre for Learning & Teaching, Newcastle University
11am – 11:10am	Adam Goldwater, Learning Officer & HWEF member: An Introduction to Hadrian's Cavalry
11:10am-11:40am	Karen MacDougall, Artist and Designer: Coordinating an arts learning programme as part of the Hadrian's Cavalry exhibition
11:40am-12pm	Jim Medway, Artist and Writer: Using comics to engage children in the Hadrian's Cavalry exhibition
12pm – 12:15pm	Hadrian's Wall Education Forum members: Panel discussion
12:15am – 12:45pm	Lindsey Atkinson, Community & Young Person Co-ordinator & The Youth Panel, Tullie House Museum & Art Gallery Trust
12:45pm-1:30pm	Lunch
1:30pm – 2pm	Katherine Pearson and Tim Crump, Flo Culture: Creating a heritage town tour app using proximity engagement
2pm-2:30pm	Dr Sally Waite, School of History, Classics & Archaeology, Newcastle University: Developing a Community Curriculum around Ancient Greece
2:30pm-3pm	Virginia Wilkinson, Learning Officer, TWAM: My Primary School is at the Museum
3pm-3:15pm	Break and refreshments
3:15pm – 4pm	Open Session: Discussion points, updates, call for advice, lightening presentations, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Joanne McKenna, The Sill, Northumberland National Park • David Silk, Newcastle Castle • GNM:H Learning team • Sarah Bird, Newcastle University Special Collections
4pm	Close