

Doing or (Un) Doing Race in Higher Education

Academic research has demonstrated that there have been long standing persistent and historical forms of racial inequalities in higher education for both BME academics and students. This seminar will be a platform to enable the discussion of the further challenges and concerns about the racial disadvantages still visible in higher education in the UK.

UNIVERSITY OF SURREY

4TH DECEMBER

11-4PM

43BC02

KEY SPEAKERS:

PROFESSOR SHIRLEY ANNE TATE, UNIVERSITY OF LEEDS BECKETT

HOW DO YOU FEEL? 'WELL-BEING' AND UN-VOICEABILITY IN UK UNIVERSITIES.

PROFESSOR GILL CROZIER, UNIVERSITY OF ROEHAMPTON

---

BLACK AND MINORITY ETHNIC STUDENTS
NEGOTIATING WHITE 'NORMS', MANAGING EXCLUSION:
ETHICAL CHALLENGES IN HIGHER EDUCATION.

PROFESSOR ANDREW PILKINGTON, UNIVERSITY OF NORTHAMPTON.

YOU CANNOT BE SERIOUS': RACIAL INEQUALITIES IN
UK HIGHER EDUCATION, 1997-2017.