

Biobanking
Seminar and Debate
Thursday 11th January 2018

Association of Clinical Biochemists
in Ireland (ACBI)

Fintan Gunne Lecture Theatre, Catherine McAuley Research Centre, Mater University Hospital, Dublin

- 08.30 Coffee and Registration
- 08.45 – 0.900 Welcome: Dr Graham Lee, Consultant Clinical Biochemist, Mater University and Mullingar Regional Hospitals
President of the Association of Clinical Biochemists in Ireland
- Chair: Dr Agnieszka Blum, Consultant Haematologist and NGS Lead, Mater University Hospital
- 09.00 – 09.30 Overview of biobanking in Ireland
Dr Suzanne Bracken, Clinical Research Development Ireland (CRDI)
- 09.30 – 10.00 Setting standards in biobanking
Emma Snapes, INFANT, Cork University Maternity Hospital and University College Cork
- 10.00 -10.30 Developing a biobank – the Northern Ireland experience
Dr Claire Lewis, Northern Ireland Biobank
- 10.30 – 11.00 COFFEE
- Chair: Professor Aurelie Fabre, Consultant Histopathologist, St Vincent’s University Hospital
- 11.00 – 11.40 Academic biobanks and industry: overcoming obstacles to efficient collaboration and mutual benefit
Dr Robert Hewitt, Director Biobank Consortia, Trans-Hit Biomarkers Inc, Canada
- 11.40– 12.10 East London Genes and Health Project
Beverley MacLaughlin, Project Manager, East London Genes & Health, Barts Health Trust, Queen Mary University of London, London
- Irish Experiences*
- 12.10– 12.30 Brain Bank, RCSI (Speaker TBC)
- 12.30 – 12.50 Value of Biobank to the Oncologist and patients
Professor Michaela Higgins, Mater University Hospital
- 12.50 – 13.10 The potential role for clinical diagnostic laboratories and biobanking
Professor Maria Fitzgibbon, Consultant Clinical Biochemist, Mater University Hospital
- 13.15 – 14.15 LUNCH
- Chair: Dr Paula O’Shea, Consultant Clinical Biochemist, Galway University Hospitals
- 14.15 – 14.45 Biobanking and the Law – Consent, governance and IP
Dr Asim Sheikh BL, University College Dublin
- 14.45 – 15.15 Funding and policy making for biobanks
Dr Caitriona Creely or Dr Ellen Moran, Health Research Board (HRB)
- 15.15 – 15.45 How commercial enterprise can benefit patients – The GMI Project
Professor Sean Ennis, Genomic Medicine Ireland
- 15.45 – 16.30 Panel Discussion and Debate, Professor Colm O’Brien (Chair), Professor Aurelie Fabre, Professor Michaela Higgins, Professor Sean Ennis, Emma Snapes, Dr Robert Hewitt, Professor Maria Fitzgibbon

Registration at www.acbi.ie

Enquiries lucillekavanagh@mater.ie; mfitzgibbon@mater.ie

CPD RCPATH (UK) in progress

