

Wednesday 7 March 2018

9.00-5.15pm

Derek Willoughby Lecture Theatre, Charterhouse Square, London EC1M 6BQ

A Mental Health Research Congress bringing together the best psychiatric research from experts in the field.

We will have cutting edge research presentations by international experts and from promising junior researchers who will become future leaders.

Programme

Morning Session Conference Chair:	Professor Kamaldeep Bhui Centre Lead Barts and The London School of Medicine and Dentistry
9.00-9.15am	Registration and Coffee
9.15-9.30am	Welcome address Colin Bailey Principal, Queen Mary University of London
9.30-10.10am	Early detection and prevention of dementia Prof Nick Fox National Hospital for Neurology and Neurosurgery King's College London
10.10-10.50am	Epigenetic markers of childhood victimisation and psychotic experiences Dr Helen Fisher Senior Lecturer & MQ Fellow King's College London
10.50-11.10am	Coffee
11.10-11.50am	Advances in Addiction Biology Prof Anne Lingford-Hughes Head, Centre for Psychiatry and Professor of Addiction Biology at Imperial College London and Hon Consultant Psychiatrist, CNWL NHS Foundation Trust
11.50-12.30pm	Transcranial direct current stimulation for schizophrenia Prof Sukhwinder Shergill Professor of Psychiatry & Systems Neuroscience King's College London
12.30-1.00pm	Open Forum
1.00-2.00pm	Lunch

Afternoon Session Conference Chair:	Dr Nick Bass Consultant Psychiatrist and Director of Medical Education East London Foundation Trust
2.00-2.15pm	Welcome and Introduction
2.15-3.15pm	Trainee and Medical Student Presentations
3.15-3.45pm	Tea
3.45-4.55pm	Trainee and Medical Student Presentations
4.55-5.10pm	Brief address Queen Mary University of London Award Presentations
5.10—5.15pm	Closing Comments

