

Bournemouth University

2nd International Midwifery Education Conference 2018

What works in midwifery education?

A conference run by midwife educators for midwife educators

Midwifery Journal will officially launch its Special Issue on Midwifery Education

Date: 5th and 6th July 2018

Time: Day 1 14.00-19.00 and Day 2 09.00-15.00

Venue: Executive Business Centre, Holdenhurst Road, Bournemouth, BH8 8EB

Keynote speakers:

Magnus Frampton – the pedagogic process of Bildung

Elizabeth Falconer – immersive learning technologies

Presentations from midwifery educators and researchers

Posters - Educational stands - Networking

Cost: £99.00 per person (£79.00 if registered before April 30th 2018) Please book on-line:

www.bournemouth.ac.uk/international-midwifery-conference

Location: Short walk from Bournemouth station, NCP car park and a wide range of hotels.

Lunch and refreshments provided.

Call for abstracts for presentations and posters: Abstracts for presentations and posters are welcomed for this conference. These should relate to developments and innovations in midwifery education and should include details of research findings or evaluation. Please send abstracts (maximum of 250 words as a Word document) by email to

MidEd18abstracts@bournemouth.ac.uk with the email subject line 'Midwifery Education Conference 2018' by 28th February 2018

If you have any queries please contact buevents@bournemouth.ac.uk