

STADTKOLLOQUIUM

Stadtkolloquium is an academic forum organised by PhD students from various disciplines brought together by their research work and interest in urbanism.

WELCOME TALK & NEW YEAR MINGLE!

TIME: 5PM-6:30PM*
DATE: TUES, JAN 23, 2018

UCL Geography
Pearson Building, Room G07
Gower Street, London WC1E 6BT

*Stadtkolloquium is run by a steering committee made up of students who plan its activities. It is renewed every year. If you're interested in getting involved, we will meet after the talk at 6:30pm in the same room.

OUR SPEAKERS:

DR. SANDRA JASPER
University of Cambridge

DR. REGAN KOCH
Queen Mary University of London

DISCUSSION TOPICS with Q&A:

CONCEPTUALLY: What does it mean to do urban research? What does the urban lens/'seeing like a city' mean? How do you problematise what counts as urban?

METHODOLOGICALLY: How do you do fieldwork in the city?

PUBLISHING URBAN RESEARCH: when, where, and how?
