

PLANT ENVIRONMENTAL PHYSIOLOGY GROUP

Annual Early Career Scientist Symposium Blakeney National Nature Reserve 14th – 16th May 2018 YHA Sheringham, UK

Join us on the beautiful Norfolk coast to hear keynote talks from Dr. Gill Malin and Prof. Andrew Watkinson (UEA), take a guided botanical coastal walk around the Blakeney Point Nature Reserve, and present your research as a talk or a poster alongside other other early career researchers in plant physiology for a chance to win prizes, network and to learn more about careers in plant environmental physiology. Plus, there's the annual PEPG social quiz!

Registration fees are £45 for SEB and BES members, £65 for non-members. All meals and accommodation at YHA Sheringham are included.
