Anti-Gender Campaigns in Europe
Mobilizing against Equality
Edited by Roman Kuhar and David Paternotte

“An essential reading to better understand the widespread reactionary backlash in today’s Europe. This book is a much-needed wake-up call. While anti-gay marriage movements have long been regarded as anecdotal, the authors show how deep their cultural and religious roots are. This meticulous account is an important step towards reinventing minority rights across European borders.”

Bruno Perreau, Cynthia L. Reed Professor, Massachusetts Institute of Technology
