

NATESOL invite you to:

The NATESOL Conference 2018:

'Diversity with Inclusivity: Special Educational Needs, Disability and the Second Language Learner'

Plenary Speaker 1: Anne Margaret Smith (ELT well and IATEFL IP & SEN SIG): 'Raising Awareness of Specific Learning Differences (SpLDs)'

Plenary Speaker 2: Maria Reraki (University of Birmingham): 'Dyslexia and Inclusion in the Second Language Classroom'

Parallel Sessions:

Stephanie Aldred (Manchester Metropolitan University) 'Inclusivity: a win-win situation'

Pura Ariza (Manchester Metropolitan University): 'Are foreign languages an 'elite' subject? How do we teach foreign languages to learners who don't score high marks?'

Ruth Arrowsmith (INTO): 'Learning with a difference: meeting the challenge of identifying and supporting Specific Learning Differences in second language learners'

Stephen Dodd (English in Liverpool and NATESOL Teacher Development Scholar): 'Time to take back control: how project-based learning (PBL) can empower both teachers and learners for better learning outcomes'

Gee Macrory (MMU) and Mike Beaumont (formerly University of Manchester): '(Not) picking up the signals: how autism can drop under everybody's radar'

Victoria Mann (University of Sheffield): 'Dyslexia and additional language learning'

Tony Picot (Manchester Metropolitan University): 'Inclusivity in higher education: policy and technology'

Suzanne Robertshaw (INTO): 'Teaching learners with AD(H)D'

Saturday, 19th May 2018,
9 am registration – main hall

Venue: Brooks Building, Birley Fields Campus, Manchester Metropolitan University,
Link <http://venues.mmu.ac.uk/venues/brooks-building/>

Admission prices (prices include lunch)	Concession & students £20 Members & Speakers £40 Non-members £50 Publishers (unless sponsoring) £95
---	--

Pre-registration is required with Jonathon Nicolson at jtnicolson@hotmail.co.uk

NATESOL's programme consists of 6 sessions during the academic year.

* Individual membership per year: £10 - Free attendance at each session

* Institutional membership per year: £50.

* Non-members pay £4 per session, concession £3

To renew your membership, become a new member, or just receive information about future sessions, then please contact:
Jonathan Nicolson at 6 Stafford Rd. Eccles. jtnicolson@hotmail.co.uk or 0161 789 4970.