

26 February 2019

CLINICAL COMMISSIONING CONSENSUS CONFERENCE

From FOBt to FIT: Making it work for patients and populations

NICE guidance

Latest evidence

Safety netting

Laboratory issues with FIT testing

FIT in primary care

The future of FIT

ROYAL COLLEGE OF PHYSICIANS

11 St Andrews Place

London

NW1 4LE

Registration at 9.30

Aimed at commissioners, clinicians and providers

Speakers from:

Royal College of Physicians

Bowel Cancer UK
Beating bowel cancer together

Register at: <https://www.rcplondon.ac.uk/events/fobt-fit-making-it-work-patients-and-populations>

From FOBt to FIT: making it work for patients and populations

A Consensus Conference for Clinicians and Commissioners

26th February 2019 Royal College of Physicians, London

09:00 Registration

09.45 Welcome & Introduction PRCP

Morning session – Chairs Ms Celia Ingham Clark & Dr Ed Seward

09.50 Introducing FIT into the laboratory Dr Sally Benton, Guildford

10.15 NICE guidance and FIT Dr Robert Logan, NHS-E, London

10:35 Implementing FIT in symptomatic populations: practice, learning and safety netting as a 'rule out test'

1. Nottingham – Mr Ayan Banerjea
2. Leicester – Mr Baljit Singh
3. York – Dr James Turvill

11.20 Coffee Break

11.40

4. Royal Marsden – Mr Muti Abulafi
5. NCEL – Mr Michael Machesney
6. Eastbourne – Mr Raj Harshen

12.25 Speaker Panel Questions & Answers

12.40 Cancer Alliance Data Evaluation and Analysis Service: Evidence Synthesis Dr Natasha Crawford

12.55 Summary & Conclusions Ms Celia Ingham Clark – Medical Director NHSE

13.00 Lunch

Afternoon session – Chairs Ms Deborah Alsina & Dr Robert Logan

14:00 Implementing FIT in primary care: lessons learnt so far

1. Oxford – Dr Brian Nicholson
2. Nottingham – Mr Ayan Banerjea
3. Preston – Ms Natalie Hunt

14.45 Speaker Panel Questions & Answers

15:00 How to improve the PPV of FIT: FAST? Prof S Halloran

15:30 FIT Pioneers Research Group – The Way Ahead Mr David Humes

16.15 Summary and Close