

Lincoln
Record
Society

THE OLD HALL, GAINSBOROUGH.
by Rev. C. Terrot.

Lincolnshire in the Wars of the Roses
Conference

20-22 September
2019

www.lincoln-record-society.org.uk

Telephone 01522 561640

The Lincoln Record Society Autumn conference will take place on Friday 20th, Saturday 21st and Sunday 22nd September 2019. This stellar research conference throws the spotlight on fifteenth-century Lincolnshire and the cast of characters involved in the national dynastic conflict, the Wars of the Roses.

Day 1, Friday 20 September, 19.00-21.00 (Teaching Room 1, Hardy Building, Bishop Grosseteste University, Lincoln)

Special Lecture: 'A Seaside Journey in Yorkist Lincolnshire', Dr Anne F. Sutton

Wine reception to follow.

Day 2: Saturday 21st September (International Bomber Command Centre, Canwick Hill, Lincoln)

9.30-10.00 Registration (coffee on arrival)

10.00-10.10 Welcome and Introduction: Professor David Stocker, President, Lincoln Record Society

Session 1 (10.10-11.30): The Battle of Losecoat Field, 1470

'A Local Event on a National Stage: the Lincolnshire Rebellion of 1470', Dr Jonathan Mackman, University of York

'The Road to Losecoat Field: The story of the First Lincolnshire Rising', Dr Nicholas Bennett, University of Lincoln/Lincoln Record Society

11.30-11.50 Break

Session 2 (11.50-13.10): Royal women and Lincolnshire in the Wars of the Roses

'Cecily duchess of York: Lincolnshire Landowner, Mother of Kings', Dr Joanna Laynesmith, University of Reading, Richard III Society

'A King's Mother about Town: Lady Margaret Beaufort in Stamford', Dr Rachel Delman, University of York

13.10-14.10 Lunch

Session 3 (14.10-14.50): Sir Thomas Burgh

'Peacock feathers and Pater Nosters: The post-mortem identity of Sir Thomas Burgh, (c. 1430-1496)', Dr Marianne Wilson, University of York

14.50-15.10 Break

Session 4 (15.10-16.30): The nation and the locality, Lincolnshire politics and piety in the Wars of the Roses

'Impostors, embezzlers and revolution from within: the sheriff of Lincoln and the mechanics of Henry Tudor's conspiracy against Richard III, 1483-85', Dr Sean Cunningham, The National Archives

'Bridging the Divide: Parish Guilds and Lincolnshire Communities in the Wars of the Roses', Dr Claire Kennan, Royal Holloway University of London

16.30-17.00 Wrap up and Close

Day 3 (Sunday 22 September, 09.30-17.00) Excursion to Gainsborough Old Hall, St Edith's, Coates by Stow, and Stow Minster

Depart, Lincoln Hotel, 09.30

Return, Lincoln Hotel, 17.00

(incl. coach hire, soup & sandwich lunch and guided tour of Gainsborough Old Hall led by Professor David Stocker)

Please reserve a place/places at the Lincolnshire in the Wars of the Roses conference

Dietary requirements:.....

Car parking requirements: Y/N

If required, please give car registration number as IBCC require this to reserve space:.....

Dr Anne Sutton's public lecture and wine reception:

All tickets: £10

Saturday conference sessions (includes lunch and refreshments)

LRS member/Student/Unwaged: £30

Non-members: £40

Sunday excursion to Gainsborough Old Hall, St Edith's, Coates by Stow, and Stow Minster

LRS member/Student/Unwaged: £30

Non-members: £40

Full conference fee which includes Friday lecture, Saturday conference sessions and the Sunday excursion with lunch

LRS member/Student/Unwaged: £70

Non-members: £90

Total amount due: £.....

(Cheque payable to the Lincoln Record Society)

Name:.....

Address:.....

.....Postcode:.....

Telephone:.....

E-mail:.....

Please send form and cheque to: Ken Hollamby, Honorary Treasurer, Lincoln Cathedral Library, Minster Yard, Lincoln, LN2 1PX

Email: treasurer@lincoln-record-society.org.uk

To arrive by Friday 13th September 2019

For updates follow us on Twitter @LincolnRecSoc