

For 2020 the FUBiS-Program (Freie Universität Berlin International Summer and Winter University) is looking for new lecturers (doctoral student/post-doc).

Courses similar to "Europe, Migration, Refugees term II" and "Europe, Migration, Refugees term III" are to be designed and carried out.

What we expect:

- A critical migration research background (cultural and social anthropology, cultural studies, qualitative sociology)
- rich teaching experience, also in English
- The ability to develop and transmit a broad as well as critical overview on contemporary as well as historic EU and German flight_migration politics, policies, politics, policing, law, economics as well as everyday practice
- Expertise in relevant sub-topics to provide in-depth insights

What we offer:

- decent payment
- excellent working conditions
- students from all over the world (mostly undergraduate students)
- a thorough handover and counseling by the predecessor
- a dedicated staff and faculty

We strongly encourage and cherish applications from marginalized persons!

Please send a full CV with contact details to Juna Kühn, FUBiS Program Manager at j.kuehn@fu-berlin.de ASAP.