LGBT+ RESEARCH IN SPORT NETWORK MEETING

Hosted by Oxford Brookes Sport & Coaching Sciences programme and Sport England

Thursday 9 January 2020

Snow Room, John Henry Brookes Building, Headington Campus, Oxford Brookes University

This event aims to bridge the gap between research/theory with policy and practice on LGBT+ participants in sport and physical activity. As such, academics, researchers, practitioners, NGB leaders, Sport Developers and policy makers are all welcome to attend this free network meeting to share ideas, practice, policy, research and strategies to make sport more inclusive and welcoming for LGBT+ people.
