IJEAD International Journal of Education in Architecture and Design

New Journal publishing from March 2020 Submissions Open

The first issue is planned for March 2020.

Dear Colleagues,

We are pleased to announce the launch of the International Journal of Education in Architecture and Design \(IJEAD\), a new journal aiming to create a platform to collect and present several approaches, examples, experiments to architectural and design education. The journal will be a valuable resource for those interested in the areas of architectural education, design education, urban planning education, interior architecture education, industrial design education, landscape design education and other related disciplines. Its main aims are:

- To provide a forum for meaningful discussion about the quality of architectural and design education.
- To offer a holistic account of curriculum models, course syllabus models, formal and informal studies/works, experimental works, assessments / reviews on quality of education in the fields of architecture and design.
- To offer outstanding contributions to the philosophies underpinning learning, teaching, and creativity towards architectural space.

International Journal of Education in Architecture and Design (IJEAD) is an electronic, international, peer-reviewed, scientific journal.

The journal is published twice a year in March and September. Manuscripts in English are accepted. All the articles accepted in the journal are published open-access. No fee is charged and authors are not paid for any of the stages of article submission, evaluation and publication.

The editor seeks high quality original research articles, discussion articles, and review articles of up to 8.000 words. These may be theoretical, empirical or methodological studies conducted using qualitative or quantitative methods. All original article submissions are double-blind peer reviewed.

For article submissions please go to: <https://dergipark.org.tr/en/pub/ijead>
