

ch T

Within this Research Topic, we call for papers that explore the intersections of economic insecurity, non-standard employment and gender. We use the term 'intersection' purposively: we specifically welcome research that adopts an intersectional analytical frame to investigate the proposed issues, by looking at