

PSYCHOANALYSIS AND POLITICS

SUMMER PROGRAMME IN THE DIGITAL SEMINAR SERIES CRISES AND TRANSMISSION 2021

WEDNESDAYS AT 6 PM LONDON TIME, 7 PM BERLIN TIME

June 2nd JILL GENTILE – Death v. Life: The Strange Temporalities and Radical Democratic Imaginaries of a Pandemic (*Jill Gentile, Ph.D. is faculty member at the NYU Postdoctoral Program in Psychotherapy and Psychoanalysis. Her book Feminine Law: Freud, Free Speech, and the Voice of Desire, with Michael Macrone (Karnac, 2016) explores the mutual resonances between psychoanalysis and democracy through the lenses of freedom of speech and the feminine.*)

June 16th ARNE JOHAN VETLESEN – The use of an Object – What kinds of objects are useful? (*Arne Johan Vetlesen is a Professor of Philosophy at the University of Oslo and the author of twenty-five books, including Evil and Human Agency (Cambridge University Press, 2005), The Denial of Nature (Routledge, 2015), and Cosmologies of the Anthropocene: Panpsychism, Animism, and the Limits of Posthumanism (Routledge, 2019.)*)

June 30th SIRI GULLESTAD – Ideological destructiveness: A psychoanalytic perspective on the massacre of July 22, 2011 (Siri Gullestad is a Training analyst, Norwegian Psychoanalytical Society and Professor emeritus of psychology, University of Oslo.)

TO REGISTER AND FOR MORE INFORMATION, SEE:

www.psa-pol.org/crises

Psychoanalysis and Politics is an international and interdisciplinary conference series, registered as a non-profit organization in Norway with the org.no. 998 503 221. The conferences are international and take place in different countries and locations. A community of thought since 2010.

Webpage: www.psa-pol.org