

“Food for thought...and real refreshment” Interdisciplinary Seminar Series

Wednesday 25th October 2023

12.30 – 2.00 p.m. Online seminar

How do we familiarize educators with Tele-proximity? Connections for collective intelligence and wellbeing

Dr Chryssa Themelis

Norwegian University of Science and Technology

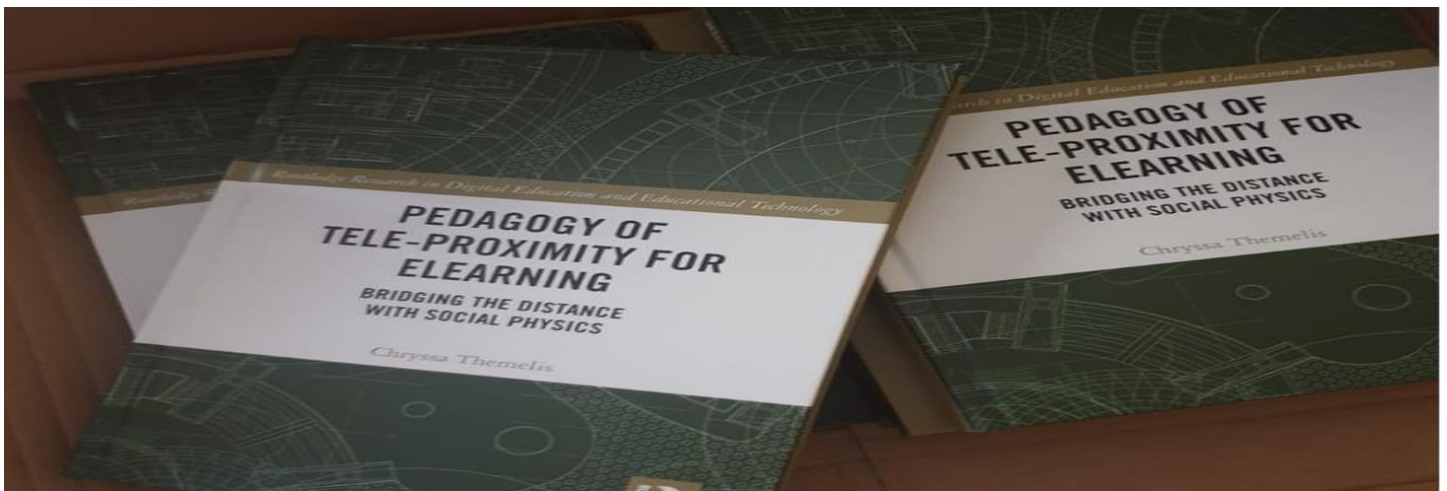

Image provided by presenter: CC0 license (no copyright infringement)

Redefining Learning in a Hyperconnected World: Embrace Tele-Proximity Pedagogy!

- 🌍 Adapt & Thrive: Pandemic-Driven Priorities
- 🚀 Explore New Teaching Strategies & Tech
- 🌐 Connect, Diverse, & Grow: The Tele-Pedagogy Way
- 📖 Bridging Distances: Social Physics Unveiled
- 🧠 Idea Flow Machines: Energize Learning
- 💛 Connect, Learn, Flourish: The Power of Relationships

Distance becomes a privilege in this well-grounded, holistic, and sustainable pedagogical journey. Join us and explore the Tele-Proximity narrative, revealing who we can be and where we can find the 'telos' for wiser futures.

Dr Chryssa Themelis is an educator and researcher in technology-enhanced learning landscapes. She works at the Norwegian University of Science and Technology, collaborates with Norway's Innovative Immersive Technologies for Learning (IMTEL) lab, and is director of studies at Themelis Language Centre.

To register to watch the seminar via Zoom, please email Dee Daghish for the link and password d.daghish@lancaster.ac.uk