

Grants for Venetian Research by British & Commonwealth Applicants 2024-2025: Gladys Kriebel Delmas Foundation

Graduate students, scholars and practitioners are invited to apply for grants for travel to and research on Venice and the former Venetian empire, and for the study of contemporary Venetian society and culture. Applicants from all disciplines of the humanities and social sciences are eligible for areas of study including, but not limited to: anthropology; archaeology; architecture; art; bibliography; economics; history; history of science; law; literature; music; political thought; religion; theatre; film and television. Applications for research on the environment and conservation are also welcomed. Other relevant research interests will be considered.

The closing date for applications is 1 April 2024.

On-line applications and further particulars are to be found at <https://www.delmas.org/how-to-apply-british-commonwealth>

Awards will be announced in the early summer.

The awarding committee gratefully acknowledges the permission of the Trustees of the National Galleries of Scotland to reproduce Richard Parkes Bonington, The Grand Canal, oil on paper laid on canvas (1826).

© National Galleries of Scotland