

International Conference for Administrative Data Research

#2018ADR

21-22 June 2018

Peter Froggatt Centre
Queen's University Belfast

The ADR conference is a growing annual event aimed at researchers who use administrative data to better understand populations and societies.

This year's conference will take place in Belfast in the UK.

We invite you to visit our conference website for details on programmatic themes, abstract submission (deadline 7th March via EasyChair), and registration.
